The Michigan Petroleum Association (MPA) has been serving the state's independent petroleum marketers since 1934. MPA was incorporated by a group of jobbers who believed that by promoting a cooperative spirit and encouraging group effort, marketers across the state could achieve their common goals. By promoting a cooperative spirit and encouraging group effort, a group of jobbers who believed that independent petroleum marketers (MPA) has been serving the state's service stations operators and retail/motorists since 1934.

In 1986, Michigan Association of Convenience Stores (MACS) was established by MPA to serve the interests of the state's c-store industry on the legislative front and in other matters of concern to c-store operators.

In 1996, truckstop operators, service station operators, and retail/wholesale providers of propane were invited to join MPA/MACS, and benefit from the Association's informational services, seminars, group insurance plans, and group purchasing opportunities. MPA/MACS is a member of the Petroleum Service Industry's Source for:

Legislative Information

MPA/MACS is your eyes, ears and voice at the State Capitol. A full-time staff knowledgeable in governmental affairs, backed by our professional legislative consultant, keeps you informed of legislation and political trends.

Conventions & Trade Show

The “Best in the Midwest” Spring Convention and Trade Show is held the third week in March at the DeVos Place in Grand Rapids. Attendance at the three day meeting has reached 1000 in recent years.

The Trade Show features 239 10 x 10 booths. Companies from across the country display the very latest in equipment, products and services.

The Spring Convention program offers a wealth of informative business sessions, educational seminars and motivational speakers covering a wide range of topics from regulatory issues to employee relations.

MPA/MACS also produces a Fall Convention at a northern Michigan resort. It’s three days of business sessions, social gatherings and golf.

Members receive advance notice of both conventions and reduced member registration fees.
